ACTION UNDER 28 U.S.C.

Case No.: 153388-2017

TO THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE UNITED STATES, SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK, AND TO PLAINTIFFS AND THEIR ATTORNEYS OF RECORD:

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that Defendants SOCIAL STANDARDS, INC., f/k/a BARTRENDR, INC., DEVON BERGMAN and FRANCOIS MODARESSE (“Defendants”) hereby remove the above-captioned civil action from the Supreme Court of the State of New York to the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, based upon diversity jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§1332(a), 1332(c), and 1441.

This removal is based on the following grounds:

NOTICE OF REMOVAL

TIMELINESS

1. On April 12, 2017, Plaintiffs STACI SPECTOR and LISA GARCIA (“Plaintiffs”) commenced this action by filing a Complaint in the Supreme Court of the State of New York for the County of New York, Case No.: 153388-2017.

2. On May 10, 2017, Plaintiffs served copies of the Summons and Complaint on Defendants in California. True and correct copies of the Summons, Complaint, and all other process, pleadings, and orders served on Defendants are attached hereto as Exhibit A.

3. Removal is timely pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1446(b) because Defendants have filed this Notice of Removal within one (1) year of commencement of this action, and within thirty (30) days of receiving notice of this action. Murphy Brothers, Inc. v. Michetti Pipe Stringing, Inc. (1990) 526 U.S. 344, 347-48 (holding that “a named defendant’s time to remove is triggered by simultaneous service of the summons and complaint, or receipt of the complaint, ‘through service or otherwise,’ after and apart from service of the summons . . .”).

JOINDER

4. There are no defendants that are required to join in this removal. 28 U.S.C. §1441(a).

JURISDICTION: DIVERSITY

5. This Court has original jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1332 because it is a civil action between citizens of different states, and the amount in controversy exceeds $75,000, exclusive of interest and costs. Thus, removal of this action is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§1332(a) and 1441(a).

NOTICE OF REMOVAL

CITIZENSHIP OF PLAINTIFF

6. Defendants are informed and believe, and on that basis allege, that Plaintiffs were at all relevant times residents and citizens of the State of New York, and are currently residents of the State of Florida. (Complaint, ¶¶2 and 3.)

CITIZENSHIP OF DEFENDANTS

7. Defendant SOCIAL STANDARDS, INC., f/k/a BARTRENDR, INC. is and at all times relevant herein was a corporation duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of Delaware, with its principal place of business in Oakland, California. Therefore, Defendant SOCIAL STANDARDS, INC., f/k/a BARTRENDR, INC. is a citizen of California. 28 U.S.C. § 1332(c). (Complaint, ¶4.)

8. Defendant DEVON BERGMAN is and at all times relevant herein was an individual residing in the State of California. (Complaint, ¶5.)

9. Defendant FRANCOIS MODARESSE is and at all times relevant herein was an individual residing in the State of California. (Complaint, ¶6.)

DOE DEFENDANTS

10. Plaintiffs did not name any Doe Defendants.

AMOUNT IN CONTROVERSY

11. Plaintiffs have not specified the amount of damages they are seeking through their Complaint. Plaintiffs' failure to plead a specific amount of damages in their Complaint should be construed in favor of Defendants, supporting a finding that the minimum jurisdictional threshold has been met. Bosinger v. Phillips Plastic Corp. (S.D. Cal. 1999) 57 F. Supp. 2d 986, 989 (“[A]s such evidence [to show the amount in controversy exceeds $75,000] may not always be available to a removing defendant, to require such proof might defeat removal in an instance where a plaintiff declined to plead a specific amount of damages and a defendant could not readily ascertain the approximate amount of damages a plaintiff seeks within 30 days. Moreover, while it is for the Court to decide its own jurisdiction, the Court finds in plaintiff's silence, implicit support for Defendant's allegation as to the amount in controversy.").

12. Plaintiffs seek recovery against Defendants for, inter alia, Unpaid Wages (Complaint, ¶¶49-55) and Retaliation (Complaint, ¶¶56-60).

13. In addition to the alleged Unpaid Wages and Retaliation damages, Plaintiffs also seek emotional distress damages (Complaint, ¶60), attorneys' fees (Complaint, ¶¶55, 60, 63, 66 and Prayer for Relief) and punitive damages (Complaint, Prayer for Relief). These items are potentially recoverable as part of Plaintiffs' Unpaid Wages and Retaliation claims, and therefore, they should be counted towards the $75,000 jurisdictional threshold. Haase v. Aerodynamics Incorporated (E.D. Cal. 2009) 2009 WL 3368519, *3-5 (noting that claims for special and general damages, attorneys' fees, and punitive damages may be counted towards the jurisdictional minimum when such items are recoverable as a matter of state law).

14. Plaintiffs also seek "liquidated damages" in connection with their claims. (Complaint, ¶¶55, 60, 63, 66 and Prayer for Relief). This amount should also be counted towards the $75,000 jurisdictional threshold for the purposes of this removal. Haase, 2009 WL 3368519 at *3-5; Rippee v. Boston Market Corp. (S.D. Cal. 2005) 408 F. Supp. 2d 982, 986 (noting that the amount put in controversy by the complaint is the appropriate measure of the amount in controversy, not the ultimate or provable amount of damages).

NOTICE OF REMOVAL

15. Given Plaintiffs' allegations and the damages they seek, the amount in controversy clearly exceeds the $75,000 jurisdictional threshold, exclusive of interests and costs.

NOTICE

16. Proper notice will be given this date to Plaintiffs herein through their counsel of record, and to the Clerk of the Supreme Court for the State of New York, County of New York. A true and correct copy of the Notice (without exhibits) is attached hereto as Exhibit B, and by this reference incorporated as if set forth in full.

WHEREFORE, Defendants prays that this matter pending in the Supreme Court for the State of New York, County of New York be removed to this Court.

8. Plaintiffs commenced their employment with Defendants on or about August, 2014 and worked until their termination on or about May 22, 2015.
9. Plaintiffs' said employment period was for a total of thirty-nine (39) weeks.
10. Defendants Mr. Bergman and Mr. Modaresse created the start-up company known as Bartrendr, Inc., and maintained control of its operation as it changed its name/merged with Social Standards Inc., until late 2015 after Plaintiffs' termination.
11. Defendants developed/operated a mobile application "Bartrendr" which allows users to get live feedback of the status of the bars in a particular location or bar scene.
12. Defendants employed Plaintiffs as employees in New York City who promoted the Bartrendr mobile application. At all times herein, unless otherwise provided, all events occurring at the "workplace" shall mean New York City
13. Defendants hired Plaintiffs as their brand ambassadors in New York City whose mission was to perform the work needed for positive growth and to enhance the user's experience with the application.
14. Upon the commencement of their employment period Defendants agreed to pay Plaintiffs $20.00 per hour, from August 2014 until November 2014.
15. Defendants expanded and enlarged the roles of and responsibilities of the Plaintiffs after their initial hire and Defendants switched Plaintiffs from hourly workers to salary.
16. Defendants required Plaintiffs to execute employment agreements which set hourly pay rates and "capped" pay for certain hours and gave Plaintiff stock options.
17. Defendants required Plaintiffs to executed employment agreements dated July 7, 2014 and an amended agreement date November 18, 2014.

18. From the period between November 2014 until their May 22, 2015 termination, Defendants "capped" Plaintiff's hourly work and paid them a weekly salary of $387.50 – not to exceed $1,500.00 per month.

19. Defendants misclassified Plaintiffs as salaried (independent contractors) and paid Plaintiffs a weekly salary that failed to compensate Plaintiffs for their work in excess of forty hours per week.

20. Defendants required Plaintiffs to work and Plaintiffs in fact worked in excess of eighty (80) hours per week.

21. Plaintiffs worked in the various capacities of brand promoters, application specialists, communications specialists and general laborers whose job responsibilities included but were not limited to communicating over the application to events hosted by Bartrendr, improving the overall customer experience, performing necessary duties as to grow the user base, meeting with bar and premises owners/staff to become familiar with Bartrendr's services, communicating with the customers and Defendants, among other things.

22. Plaintiffs lacked any supervisory authority over the hiring or firing of any contractors or other employees and lacked any input into their selection, training, assignments, promotions, rates of pay, hours worked evaluations, grievances, or discipline.

23. Moreover, Plaintiffs' job duties did not include budget planning, negotiating contracts, determination of work techniques or methods, determination of equipment used, determination of materials needed, or legal and regulatory compliance.

24. Plaintiffs job duties included but were not limited to content creation, coordinating promotional models nationwide, user engagement, maintain user contact, email, post reviews, network on behalf of Bartrendr, and engage in cross-platform social media expansion- all of which benefited Defendants.

25. Plaintiffs earned no other income and held no other employment during the relevant period as described below.

26. During their employment period, in their capacities as employees, Defendants required Plaintiffs to work, and Plaintiffs did in fact work, from work seven days a week,

27. For example Plaintiffs' work schedule was generally as follows: Monday through Sunday - 11:00 am – 5:00 am; including late hours to communicate with individuals on the application including Pacific Time

28. Defendants required Plaintiffs to maintain and attend to the needs of the mobile application at all hours of the night – or when people were at bars and nightlife establishments, therefore Plaintiffs performed “in-app” work while using multiple pseudonyms or personas in order to give the application the appearance of more user interaction.

29. Furthermore, after activity on the app subsided during the daytime hours – Defendants required Plaintiffs to hold meetings or conference calls at various times of the day often lasting several hours and follow up calls including video conferencing or “screen-shares” in which Plaintiffs were required to be present and participate, primarily with Mr. Modaresse.

30. Making matters even worse Mr. Bergman would often require Plaintiffs to perform work on time sensitive material or tasks with little or no notice.

31. Additionally Mr. Bergman allowed the company's Chief Technical Officer Vladimir Bogdanov to assign tasks to Plaintiffs without regard to their already substantial work responsibilities including but not limited to content control and monitoring the app at all times.

33. On at least thirty-nine (39) weeks, Plaintiffs work exceeded 60 hours per week.
34. On each work day, Defendants set the guidelines in which Plaintiffs could perform their work duties for the Bartrendr brand, Plaintiffs first reported to Defendants when they would advance the brand in a new or innovative manner. Defendants had the final say on all of Plaintiffs work
35. Defendants set the parameters and controlled the mobile phone application.
36. Defendants never compensated Plaintiffs for their overtime work.
37. The amount of salary paid did not accurately reflect the hours that Plaintiffs worked each week, nor did they reflect the overtime hours Plaintiffs worked each week.
38. During the first approximately three months of employment, Defendants prohibited Plaintiffs from “claiming” working and did not allow Plaintiffs to report their hours despite the fact that they worked in excess of forty hours per week.
39. After the first three months of employment continuing until their termination, Defendants required Plaintiffs accept “stock-options” in lieu of hourly pay – yet Defendants failed to ever provide “stock-option” consideration for any work.
40. Defendants acted in this manner in an effort to maximize their profits at the expense of their employees.
41. Defendants also intentionally did not furnish Plaintiffs with a proper earnings statement (paystub) to Plaintiffs showing hours worked, gross earnings, showing straight time

44. Throughout their employment, Plaintiffs complained to Mr. Bergman and Mr. Modaresse about the failure to be paid for all of their hours worked including overtime; however Mr. Bergman and Mr. Modaresse failed to address the Plaintiffs' complaints.

45. Mr. Bergman and Mr. Modaresse terminated Plaintiffs on May 22, 2015 for their prior complaints regarding their rights under the NYLL.

46. Defendants' omissions and repeated failures to act and provide Plaintiffs their rights as guaranteed to their by the NYLL were retaliatory and adverse employment action.

47. The retaliatory actions by Defendants have resulted in significant economic damages to Plaintiffs.

48. All of the retaliatory acts of Defendants have caused significant emotional distress to Plaintiffs.
